

Veodia

About Veodia: Veodia's high quality, agile, easy-to-use video technology enables people and organizations to communicate more effectively. Veodia provides the best of both worlds: individuals are up and broadcasting in three simple steps, while organizations can rely on a secure, scalable, end-to-end solution and easily integrate Veodia into their existing environments (including — among others — WebEx Connect and Jive Clearspace). Based in Silicon Valley, Veodia is backed by top-tier VC firms. Please visit www.veodia.com for more information.
